To Service Building Lots

Tenders Called For Water and Sewer Ditches

The town has called for tenders for the excavation of approximately 2,300 feet of water and sewer trenches to service residential building lots within the town.

To be served with both water and sewer are the north-west side of Block 36 and the south-east half of Block 37. The lots which will thus be made available for building purposes on this street are owned by Howard Spaeth.

A sewer line will be laid south-west from the Pentecostal Church for one block, making additional residential lots available on this street. The street is already served by a water line.

It will likely be at least another month before any action can be expected on the proposal to make eight 75-ft. lots adjacent to the golf course available as residential building lots. The proposal is now before the Town Planning Commission for approval. If approval is obtained, the plan must be submitted to the ratepayers of the town for approval and the area must be annexed by the town before the lots will be available for building purposes.

Home & School Council Discusses Cameron Report

Members of the Vulcan County Home and School Council gathered recently in the Vulcan High School Library to study and discuss the report of the Cameron Commission on Education. Seven Home and School Associations were represented by the 48 members present.

Council president, R. Ruggles, welcomed those in attendance and called on school superintendent A. L. Schrag to direct the discussions. Each association had previously studied a section of the report, and at this meeting they summarized their findings. Open discussion was then carried on covering the many aspects of the report.

Some of the subjects discussed were the commission's recommendations as to changes in curriculum, standards of achievement, examinations and testing procedures, standards for teacher certification and training, accredited schools, education for the gifted, the retarded and delinquent, high school policy and community colleges. Many points in the commission report drew considerable discussion, showing the keen interest of the members in the subject.

A good cross-section of the report was presented to the members and much information shared. The Vulcan Home and School Council is to be commended for their enthusiastic efforts in this study. Leading educationalists have said, "An educational system can only be as good as the public opinion on which it rests." What better way to improve public opinion than to help it be a well-informed public opinion? The

The annual C.G.I.T. and Explorer Mother and Daughter banquet, attended by 64 girls and their mothers, was held Friday evening in the church parlors.

During the program Donald Shields and Betty Ann Northcott graduated from the Explorers into the C.G.I.T.

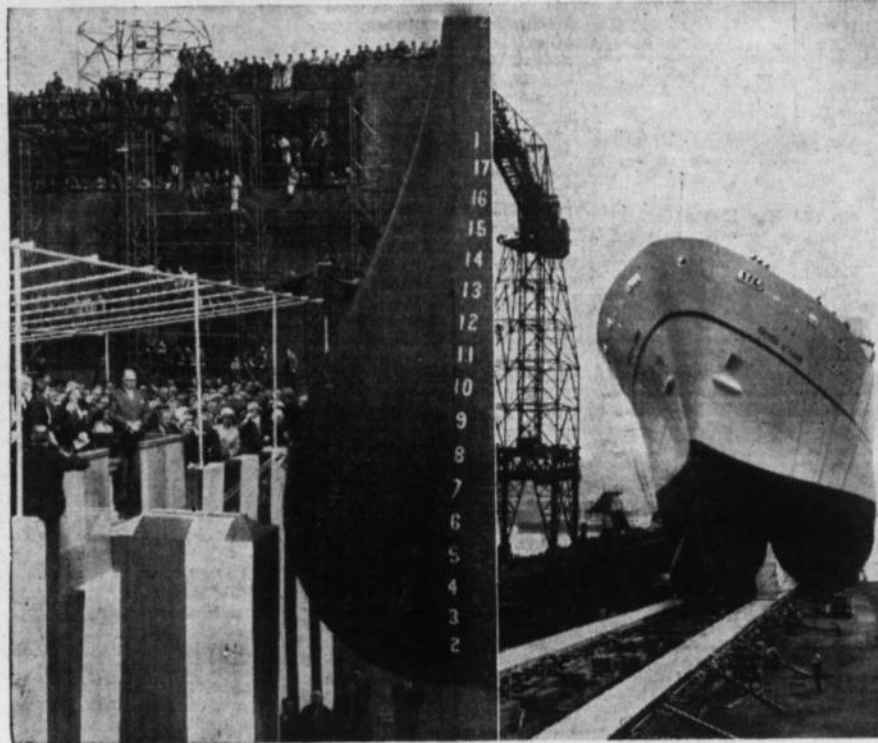

A lanyard service for five senior girls, Margo Snow, Mary Salvage, Evelyn Soder, Marion Willard and Jean Hess, was held.

Margo Snow, as chairman for the evening's program, proposed the toast to the Queen; Jean Hess to the church, to which Rev. Sharpe replied and Vicki Wellman to the mothers, to which Mrs. Gerry Ness very ably replied.

The Explorers entertained with a choral number and several games were enjoyed. The evening concluded with the girls singing Taps.

BIRTH OF NEW EMPRESS—A new $23 million flagship for the Canadian Pacific fleet was launched May 10, at Vickers-Armstrongs yard, Newcastle, England, by Mrs. John G. Diefenbaker, wife of Canada's Prime Minister. Christened "Empress of Canada," the 1,050-passenger liner will enter service between the U.K.-Montreal run early in 1961. Above (left):—An estimated 15,000 persons watched as Mrs. Diefenbaker christened the "bulbous bow" of the new Empress with a bottle of blended Canadian red wine. (right):—The 27,500-ton liner slides down the slipway into the Tyne River where she was taken in town by tugs to her fitting out berth. She will remain there until February for dry docking and sea trials. The new liner is the third C.P.R. vessel to bear the name "Canada" and will join the "Empress of England" and "Empress of Britain" on trans-Atlantic service.

Jr. Pike Derby Entrants Enthusiastic

The north wind off Lake McGregor was cold on Monday and skies were dark but the rough elements didn't stop about 25 youthful fishermen and one young lady from registering their catch at the Vulcan and District Fish & Game Junior Pike Derby.

The lake wasn't completely fished out by the boys and many didn't get a chance to compete due to rushed farming operations keeping adult guardians home, but it was a good beginning for this event.

When Monte Findlay and Guy Volsey at Drummond's farm and Bill Holton and Don McCord at the McGregor Park end of the lake had the weights sorted, the East country scored heavily on the winners list.

In the Boys' Class, age 11 to 16, 14-year-old Joe Will of Milo landed a pike four pounds, five ounces to take the trophy. Second was Dougie Campbell of Vulcan with one at three pounds, four ounces. Third prize went to Bryan King and Ronnie Perley of Vulcan who tied with a three pounder each.

In the Boys' 10 and Under Class the trophy went to 10-year-old Garry Robertson of Queenstown whose pike weighed in at three pounds six ounces. Next was Adrian Marks of Lomond with one two pounds 14 ounces and in third spot was 7-year-old Gordy Vooyos of Milo who landed a pike two pounds, five ounces.

Five-year-old Debbie Boutland of Vulcan couldn't miss winning in her class as she was the only entrant. She held up the feminine side though with a 13 inch three quarter pound fish.

Deserving commendation are the guardians of the fishermen, especially the mothers who spent the uncomfortably cool day out with their charges.

Young Adrian Marks caught a pike at Boe's Coulee and it looked like a potential winner so the Marks car made the dash around to Milo and back to the Park weight station—probably 20 miles distance—to beat the 6 o'clock deadline. It was a worthwhile trip as his entry made prize money.

Another boy, Len McCord was angling next to an adult and must have been close to tears when his neighbor landed a 12 pound pike. On Len's line it would have been a guaranteed winner.

The Fish & Game Organization has posted a trophy and prize for a four-month Pike Derby at McGregor open to boys and girls under 16.

It will run from June 1 to Oct. 15, and will give youngsters a chance to record any sizeable catch in the same manner used with the open Derby being carried out by the club. Entry forms are available and may be obtained from Bill Holton, Montie Findlay, Wolfe's Hardware and Guy Volsey.

Golfers Active Despite Weather

Golf Course In Excellent Shape And Tournaments Planned

The Vulcan Golf and Country Club is gradually getting into the best condition ever, with the early rains and fertilizing proving a boon to the growing of grass. Improvements so far completed this year are the enlarging and resurfacing of all greens; while around the club house a cement sidewalk has been installed and the parking area regreaved.

Coming events in the interest of the Vulcan golfers are: Next Sunday, May 29, the district Elks' Tournament is being held at the Regal Golf Course in Calgary. The Herald District Tournament which includes Turner Valley, High River, Staveland and Nanton and is limited to four entries from each club to be played at Vulcan on June 5 and High River on June 12, with 27 holes being played each Sunday. The winner advances to the finals at Edmonton's Mayfair on July 5-6. Playing for Vulcan will be Ray Wellman, Ron Buehler, Harold Boutland and Glen Gorbous.

On June 26, the Vulcan Golf Club's Anniversary Tournament will be held and this is expected to be bigger than ever, with probably over 100 entries. The Junior golfers held an organizational meeting last week to make plans for the coming season's activities. Their committee is headed by Ken Orchard, assisted by Allan McAskie and Donna McKay.

Activity at the Vulcan Golf Club over the holiday weekend consisted of a pick-your-own-handicap tourney for each day and a "horse race" on Monday morning. Sunday's weather was what all the golfers have been looking for all spring, but Monday again reverted to the cool and breezy type. The horse race was won by Harold Boutland with Charlie Fulton taking place position, Ray Wellman was the "show horse" while Ron Buehler completed the payoff in fourth spot.

Sunday's pick-your-handicap tourney was shared by Ron Buehler, Ray Wellman and Les O'Brien, who all ended on 73 for a net score. On Monday the winning score was again 73 and Thelma Haverty and Harold Boutland shared honors.

On the social side of the golfing scene a Spring Dance is being planned for Friday, June 10. It will be held in the Armouries with orchestra and supper at midnight. Club members may contact the following for invitations as there is limited accommodation: Norm Pettie, Harris Matlock, Peter Pickersgill or the Club Steward.

Former Champion Resident Passes

Funeral services and interment were held on May 12, in Edmonton for Mrs. Robert Gardner, formerly of Champion, who died in Edmonton on May 9.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. G. Starcher of Edmonton, Mrs. L. Sperrings and Mrs. P. Kidd of Vancouver, and Mrs. P. Gianino of Bellevue; three sons, Robert of Vancouver, Laurence and Brian of Edmonton; one brother, Elmer Garrison of Frank, Alta., and 11 grandchildren.

Mrs. Gardner was predeceased by her husband Roberts on Dec. 7, 1958.

Vulcan Takes Second

Enchant Wins Champion Baseball Tournament

Enchant took top money of $60 in the annual Champion baseball tournament held May 23.

Second money of $40 went to Vulcan while Champion and Lomond took $25 each.

Crowds were not as large as was hoped during the day but the weather was not encouraging for outdoor activities.

The four teams entered in the tourney, Lomond, Champion, Enchant and Vulcan got off to a late start in the first round with Champion going nine innings against Enchant with an 11-3 verdict to Enchant.

Vulcan blanked Lomond 8-0 in the seven inning game and met Enchant in the finals which ran into all sorts of difficulties.

The public address system went out of order, the rain and wind increased, and darkness set in before the game was well under way.

Baseballs got hard to see in the sixth inning and the game was called leaving the fifth inning score of 7-5 for Enchant, as final.

Enchant was on its way to an increased lead in the sixth with four runs on the way when time was called.

Vulcan lineup:—Burley, Gatenby, Jantzie, Pruden, Schumacher, Jordan, Houlton, Deal, Chartrand, Holcum, Chivik.

Vulcan brought two pitchers, Ken Holcum and Roy Chivik in from Lethbridge for the tournament.

Foothills Wheatbelt League play opened successfully for Vulcan Elks last Sunday when they won 5-3 over the visiting Lomond team.

A good crowd of opening-day spectators watched Lomond go ahead 1-0 in the first inning, lose the lead by 2-1 in the fourth, tie it up in the fifth and sag badly under a three run rally by Elks in the seventh.

Mike Jantzie pitched a steady game for the Elks Sunday and will have help from the United States acquisition before the next home game on June 5. Larry Taylor from Arcata, Calif., has been signed to pitch for the club and should be arriving June 3.

The presence of the Little League and Babe Ruth League in town is beginning to pay off for the senior club. Four boys who went through the Junior chain, two from previous years and two newcomers, are on the lineup. Mel Schumacher and Mike Jantzie have been with the club for two years while Don Houlton and Barry Deal are making their start in centre and right field this year.

Lawrence Mensinger is back again with the Elks handling the announcing over the loudspeaker and keeping score.

Lomond:—Maronda, Chambers, Huff, Henrickson, Domolewski, Degenstein, Henricks, Cook, Magnuson. Hendricks and Degenstein served on the mound for the losers.

Rifle Shot Kills Thoroughbred Mare

A thoroughbred mare which raced under the name of "Folk Music," was found shot by a rifle on Thursday, May 9, at the Art Ulrich farm, one-half mile north and one mile east of Champion.

The mare, heavy in foal, had apparently been shot the previous Sunday while the Ulrich family were away. Four other thoroughbreds and some Charolais cattle were in the same field close to the farm buildings when the shooting took place.

The horse was hit in the body and did not collapse for four days.

Mr. Ulrich had been busy seeding from the Sunday to Wednesday period and did not check his stock closely but the mare showed no sign of trouble when he walked up to it Wednesday night.

The owner was completely bewildered at the discovery of the mare and could only guess that the horse must have been killed by young people out shooting gophers.

The loss is a serious one both for Mr. Ulrich and for the racing sport. The owner has campaigned horses for sixteen years on the Western Canada Racing Circuit and this was one of Canada's top bred mares.

"Folk Music" was bred and raised by Col. E. R. Bradley on Elmhurst farms, one of the large breeding outfits in Lexington, Kentucky, and won $13,000 during her racing career.

Mr. Ulrich bought her four years ago and raced her for two years. She had one foal and was within 21 days of her foaling a second time.

The horse's purchase price was $1,000 but the estimated loss through future foals would be difficult to assess. The age of the animal was 11 years but she had seven or eight good breeding years left and Mr. Ulrich had scarcely begun to realize her potential.

Dr. B. W. Tonken, veterinarian of Vulcan did a post-mortem and felt if the shooting had been discovered earlier the foal could have been delivered and saved.

TRASH COVER AND WIND EROSION

Trash cover must be left on the soil surface to control or reduce wind erosion in certain areas of the prairies, warns a Canada Department of Agriculture research official.

F. Bisal of the Swift Current Experimental Farm, says up to 5,000 pounds per acre of standing wheat stubble is required for complete protection of pulverized or sandy soil but amounts of 500

Weather Still Delays Seeding

Seeding operations are still a long ways from being completed in the County of Vulcan area and were again brought to a halt by a general rain Monday evening.

Seeding is farthest advanced in the eastern and southern parts of the county. In the western area, possibly 50% is completed but north of Vulcan very little acreage has been seeded as yet.

Where help is available, many seeding outfits are working around the clock when the weather permits.

Canon T. B. Winter Dies At Calgary

Word was received here of the death of Rev. Canon T. B. Winter at the age of 80 years.

Canon Winter served in a number of parishes in the south including the Wheatbelt Mission, comprising of Vulcan, Lomond, Champion, Carmangay and Barons, which was his charge during the years 1936-1940.

The last rites of the church were held at the Cathedral Church of the Redeemer in Calgary with Dean N. S. Noel and other clergy officiating. Burial was in the Field of Honor, Burnside Cemetery, Calgary.

Announce New Lakehead Annex

Decision to construct a new grain storage annex at Port Arthur has been announced by J. E. Brownlee, President of United Grain Growers Ltd., following a meeting of the Board of Directors at Winnipeg. The new annex will be built on the same site and will replace the two and a half million outdoor storage structure which suddenly toppled into Lake Superior last September. The new annex will have a storage capacity greatly in excess of that of the original (2,500,000 bushels). It will be built in sections with the total capacity to be announced later.

Meanwhile work is continuing in replacement of rail trackage and erection of a permanent trestle alongside the plant to serve the workhouse and the inshore annexes which were undamaged. Two of the six tracks have been replaced, enabling the loading of grain boats as navigation opens on the Great Lakes. Completion of the work with full track operation is anticipated by the end of May.

pounds on loam soils of fair structure, can eliminate the erosion hazard.

There is no question of the value of crop residue as a major factor in decreasing or eliminating soil blowing. Also, it prevents the breakdown of the surface structure and helps maintain the water infiltration rate.

Possible difficulties from large amounts of trash cover may arise. A slow-down in the rate of nitrification and weed control may be a problem in some areas but nevertheless results show that the prevention of soil movement still depends on cultural methods that will preserve a quantity of residue on the surface.

MAJORVILLE

Spring work was again held up this week as rain and some snow showers left amounts of moisture registering from .90 to over an inch. As might be expected in a cool wet spring, weeds are making the news and some reports of spraying for wild oats before seeding have been received. This procedure is being watched with more than passing interest for this weed has taken over in an alarming manner during the past few years.

A travelling basket started on its rounds by Terry Heather to raise funds for Explorer activities has been reported to have been quite successful.

Mrs. Jessie Eamon of Cluny was guest for a few days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Umschled.

Friends will be interested to know that Irene Kiemle who is a nursing aide student in Calgary, has been transferred to Medicine Hat Hospital to take further training in the course. Irene is a daughter of George Kiemle.

Mrs. Irvin Sukut accompanied by Mrs. Prentice went to High River during the week to visit the formers' sister, Mrs. Lloyd Peterson who is a patient in hospital there where she recently underwent an operation.

Belated birthday wishes go to Mrs. Nellie Burke who passed her 83rd milestone on May 13. Grannie was recently a flu victim but is now better.

Mrs. George Heather accompanied by Mrs. Mel Schaub went to Enchant last Saturday to attend the Lutheran WME district conference.

Of local interest is the marriage in Bassano on Saturday of Jean Edwards of Bassano and Rod Hood of Countess. Jean is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Edwards, residents of East Majorville district.

Best wishes for a speedy and complete recovery go to Jim Dew who entered the Crippled Children's Hospital in Calgary on Thursday and was operated on, on Friday. A year or so ago Jim's horse fell with him and he has had trouble with an injury to his leg since that time. All his friends hope that this is the last time it will be necessary to go to hospital. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Dew.

YOU CAN'T BUY ANY CAR FOR LESS... UNLESS IT'S A LOT LESS CAR!!!!

you're considering an economy car, you couldn't do better than Corvair! Count up its big, big advances: Remarkable rear-engine traction... the supple riding qualities of 4-wheel independent suspension... the extra storage space of a fold-down rear seat... the economy of an air-cooled engine (no water, no antifreeze, no radiator repairs ever!).

Corvair 700 4-Door Sedan

THERE'S NO BETTER CAR FOR TENDING YOUR DOLLARS THAN CHEVROLET. FOR RESOUNDING PROOF, LOOK AT THESE FINE FEATURES. YOU JUST DON'T GET THEM ALL ON ANY CAR NEAR CHEVY'S SIZE AND PRICE—EVEN ON SOME CARS THAT COST A WHOLE LOT MORE!

A General Motors Value

Bel Air 4-Door Sedan

FULL COIL CUSHIONING

Chevy puts a deep coil spring at each rear wheel, too. Unlike old-style leaf springs, they don't have to anchor the rear axle or transmit the focus of braking and acceleration. Chevy's coils have nothing to do but tame the bumps—and what a gentle job they do!

WIDEST CHOICE OF POWER TEAMS

Eight spunky engines with five velvety transmissions — 24 combos in all. No other car anywhere gives you such a wide choice!

Body by Fisher

Those crank-operated vent windows, for example, will give you an idea of all the extra consideration your comfort gets in Body by Fisher.

SAFETY-GIRDER FRAME

Chevrolet's frame is X-built, not just X-braced. This extra attention pays off in greater torsional rigidity, and it's one reason for Chevy's silence.

MORE "EXTRAS" at no extra cost!

Single-key locking and starting, anti-glare hoods for each instrument, enclosed steering column, Safety Glass all around, precision-balanced wheels and tires. And a whole lot more besides.

Not So Weak

We have long harboured the suspicion that in Canada at least the weaker sex is not the one most of us like to think it is. Now, official statistics under four different heads would seem to put the matter beyond all reasonable doubt, hard as this may be on the male ego.

The infant mortality rate for females, we note, is 25 per cent lower than that for males. On the other hand, the male suicide rate is 11.8 per 100,000 of population compared with only 3.0 for females.

In mental institutions, males outnumber females by 15 per cent. Finally, the life expectancy of the female of the species in this country is a good five years greater than that of mere males (71 years against 66).

To sum up: The Canadian male is more likely than the female to die at birth; enter a mental home; commit suicide; and fall short of three score years and ten.

All of which should cause us to revise our ideas about which of the sexes is basically the stronger, at any rate, in terms of capacity for survival.

More tender (we will not say more deadly) than the male the Canadian female may be: weaker she obviously is not.

New Historical Book By Prairie Columnist

About 75 years ago, if you stayed at Harry Taylor's hotel in a little town in Southwestern Alberta, you were obliged to obey the rules.

Guests were forbidden to shoot holes in the ceiling "except of course, to attract the attention of the waiters." The exception here to the rule was — "two shots for ice water and three for a deck of cards." Guests were also requested to rise at 6 a.m. as the sheets were needed for tablecloths.

In his new book, Alberta Revisited, published by the Ryerson Press, Ken Liddell treats his readers to this — and a score of other amusing anecdotes and historical items about a province "that is just beginning to look back over its colorful past."

Canadian by birth, Albertan by choice, Mr. Liddell maintains that to be an Albertan is not a matter of birth — but a state of mind. "It is exhilarating," states the author, "to live in mile high country," the very atmosphere of which requires the manufacturers of cake mixes to give special times for the preparation of their product — or the makers of automobile seat covers to guarantee them against fading, anywhere but in Alberta, where the sun is so friendly it is almost always out! There is no other province quite like it.

"Alberta Revisited" is something of the history of Alberta — but more than that, it is the story of the persons who made that history — their lives, their problems and how they met them. A visit to these people's homes on the great plains; to their ranch houses in the foothills or to their shacks in the bush is a more than interesting experience — for Albertans come of pioneering and gambling stock and "they are still pioneering and gambling."

From Medicine Hat, the reader travels through Red River country and the "eerie bandlands" of Drumheller — where a visitor may pick up odd and ends of the life of 70,000,000 years ago. We read the diary of Happy Jack the lonely cowboy who noted the doings of each day on the pages of Dr. Chase's Almanac. Wrote lonely Jack for the month of July . . . "Long live the King and damn the mosquitoes."

In Lethbridge, capital of the Whoop-Up Country, home of the world's 10,000 Hutterites, the jeans of the cowboy and the buckskins of the Indian mingle with a thousand and European faces. At Fort McLeod, we chat with an 87 year old resident who remembers when the R.C.M.P. first selected its site more than 80 years ago.

In the country of Alberta's oil and gas bonanza, we visit Allan J. MacDonald whose first boyhood recollection of Calgary was the sight of a moose strolling down the main street. Today, Calgary has a Cadillac and Continental outlook — but any native who does not dress up in Western attire is considered a traitor.

As Mr. Liddell has put it, " . . . Alberta has just reached the age of maturity." One can only conclude that such a charming and informal record will bring a deeper appreciation of "Canada's Sunshine Province."

A person can get just as drunk on water as on land.

My faith has found a resting place,
Not in device nor creed;
I trust the Ever-living One,
His wounds for me shall plead.
Enough for me that Jesus saves,
This ends my fear and doubt;
A sinful soul I come to Him,
He'll never cast me out.
I need no other argument,
I need no other plea,
It is enough that Jesus died,
And that He died for me.

HAVE YOU ENOUGH CONFIDENCE? Look at any successful man. He knows what he's doing... knows where he's going. He's not afraid of tough jobs, tough decisions. Think! Do you have this kind of confidence?

No man can have real confidence unless he has security for himself, his family, his future. Successful men realize this early in life. They create and protect this security with LIFE INSURANCE. These are the things that LIFE INSURANCE can help to give you.

The banquet was followed by a toast to the Queen and a toast to the Mothers, proposed by Joan Smith, Chief Explorer, to which Mrs. Papp fittingly responded.

Mrs. Shields then gave a very interesting talk on Exploring, in which she brought out some of the responsibilities of being an Explorer.

A short program which was planned and carried out by the girls included a skit by Maureen Sinclair, Elva Peterson and Ellen Thompson; an accordion solo by Jean McIntyre; jokes by Cheryl Byers and Judy Fernley; a skit by Joan Papp and Helen Kole, and a fashion show narrated by Clara Northcott. Models were Terry Heather, Marilyn Monner, Cheryl Byers, Judy Fernley, Ellen Thompson, Jean McIntyre and Judy Hellevang. Following the fashion show Judy Hellevang and Joan Smith sang, "Mother."

The evening was brought to a close by a short film strip on "Firefighters of Africa," followed by the Explorer prayer and hymn.

A Message from "Your Pharmacist"

SENATOR KEFAUVER PRAISES PHARMACISTS

On April 18th he said - quote - "The pharmacist only adds his profit on to what the manufacturer charges him. He is entitled to make a reasonable profit and is not the one to blame." End of exact quote.

THANK YOU SENATOR KEFAUVER.

We know you are now more familiar with drug economics than when you started your investigation. Soon, we hope, you will also learn that the ethical drug manufacturers are due much praise for their research developed new products that are helping us live a longer, healthier life. They too must make a profit.

WE WANT TO THANK OUR CUSTOMERS.

You never "criticized" us about the sensational newspaper headlines. You always had complete confidence in the fairness of our prescription prices. You know our policy is to add to the cost of ingredients only the amount of profit needed to operate a good pharmacy — no more.

FIRE LOSSES in the Province as a result of grass and stubble fires burning out of control have totalled several thousand dollars in recent weeks, according to A. E. Bridges, Alberta Fire Commissioner.

A rural church valued at $10,000 was destroyed by a stubble blaze at Linaria. The noon fire became uncontrollable and raged a quarter mile in one hour, to consume the building.

The day previous, a grass fire burned the Grace Children's Home at Dimsdale near Grand Prairie.

In 1959 a grass fire touched off by a spark from a shaving burner threatened a large lumber yard and mill at Rocky Mountain House and resulted in loss of $92,000.

Mr. Bridges commends the fire departments throughout the Province who have developed a safe and sure program of spring clean-up and trash disposal. The co-operation of the public, however, is the greatest deterrent to the annual loss. The grass fire started on a calm day may suddenly become a threat if the wind should change, or if a proper fire break and extinguishing equipment are not available. Commissioner

Bridges recommends that all persons intending to burn grass or stubble to check with the local fire authorities before starting, to keep plenty of water and wet sacks handy, and to provide an adequate fire break. The evening is the best time for burning grass as there is less chance of wind. The Fire Commissioner's Office cautions citizens from leaving grass or stubble fires which are not properly extinguished.

Shown in the picture are the remains of a church recently consumed by an uncontrolled stubble fire.

EXTENDED LIFE

DEEPER, MORE EFFICIENT PENETRATION

LIGHTER DRAFT LESS DOWN-TIME

Advanced hard-facing and heat-treating methods provide a shovel with a service life that's double or even triple that of a plain shovel. More important, it keeps digging to maximum penetration, because it keeps its point throughout most of its service life.

It keeps its size and shape longer, so there is less time lost changing worn out shovels. Adams Hard-Faced Shovels save money, increase plowing efficiency. We carry a complete stock of sizes from 6-inches wide to 22-inches wide, in both high and low clearance. You'll like these Adams shovels. Try them.
